"Our" wish for you
From Mom & Dad

My wish for you

May you find serenity and tranquility
In a world you may not understand
May the pain and conflict suffered
Allow new strength to take command
May you always walk with certainty
Facing new situations all around
May courage lead to greater heights
Where enthusiasm will abound.

May you see enough goodness in this world
To believe in a future peace
May a kind word, reassuring touch
Be gifts that never cease
Always know that you are loved by God
With his compassionate, infinite care
And when loneliness hovers over you
Know that Christian friends are there.

Teach love to those who tend to hate
By the life you live each day
And remember when storms seem unending
There're sunbeams on the way
May your life be filled with promise
As you walk with our Christ of love
May your hopes be built on solid ground
And your treasures collect above.

May you be the best in all you do
And know that you are led
By guidance from the word of God
As your soul is daily fed.

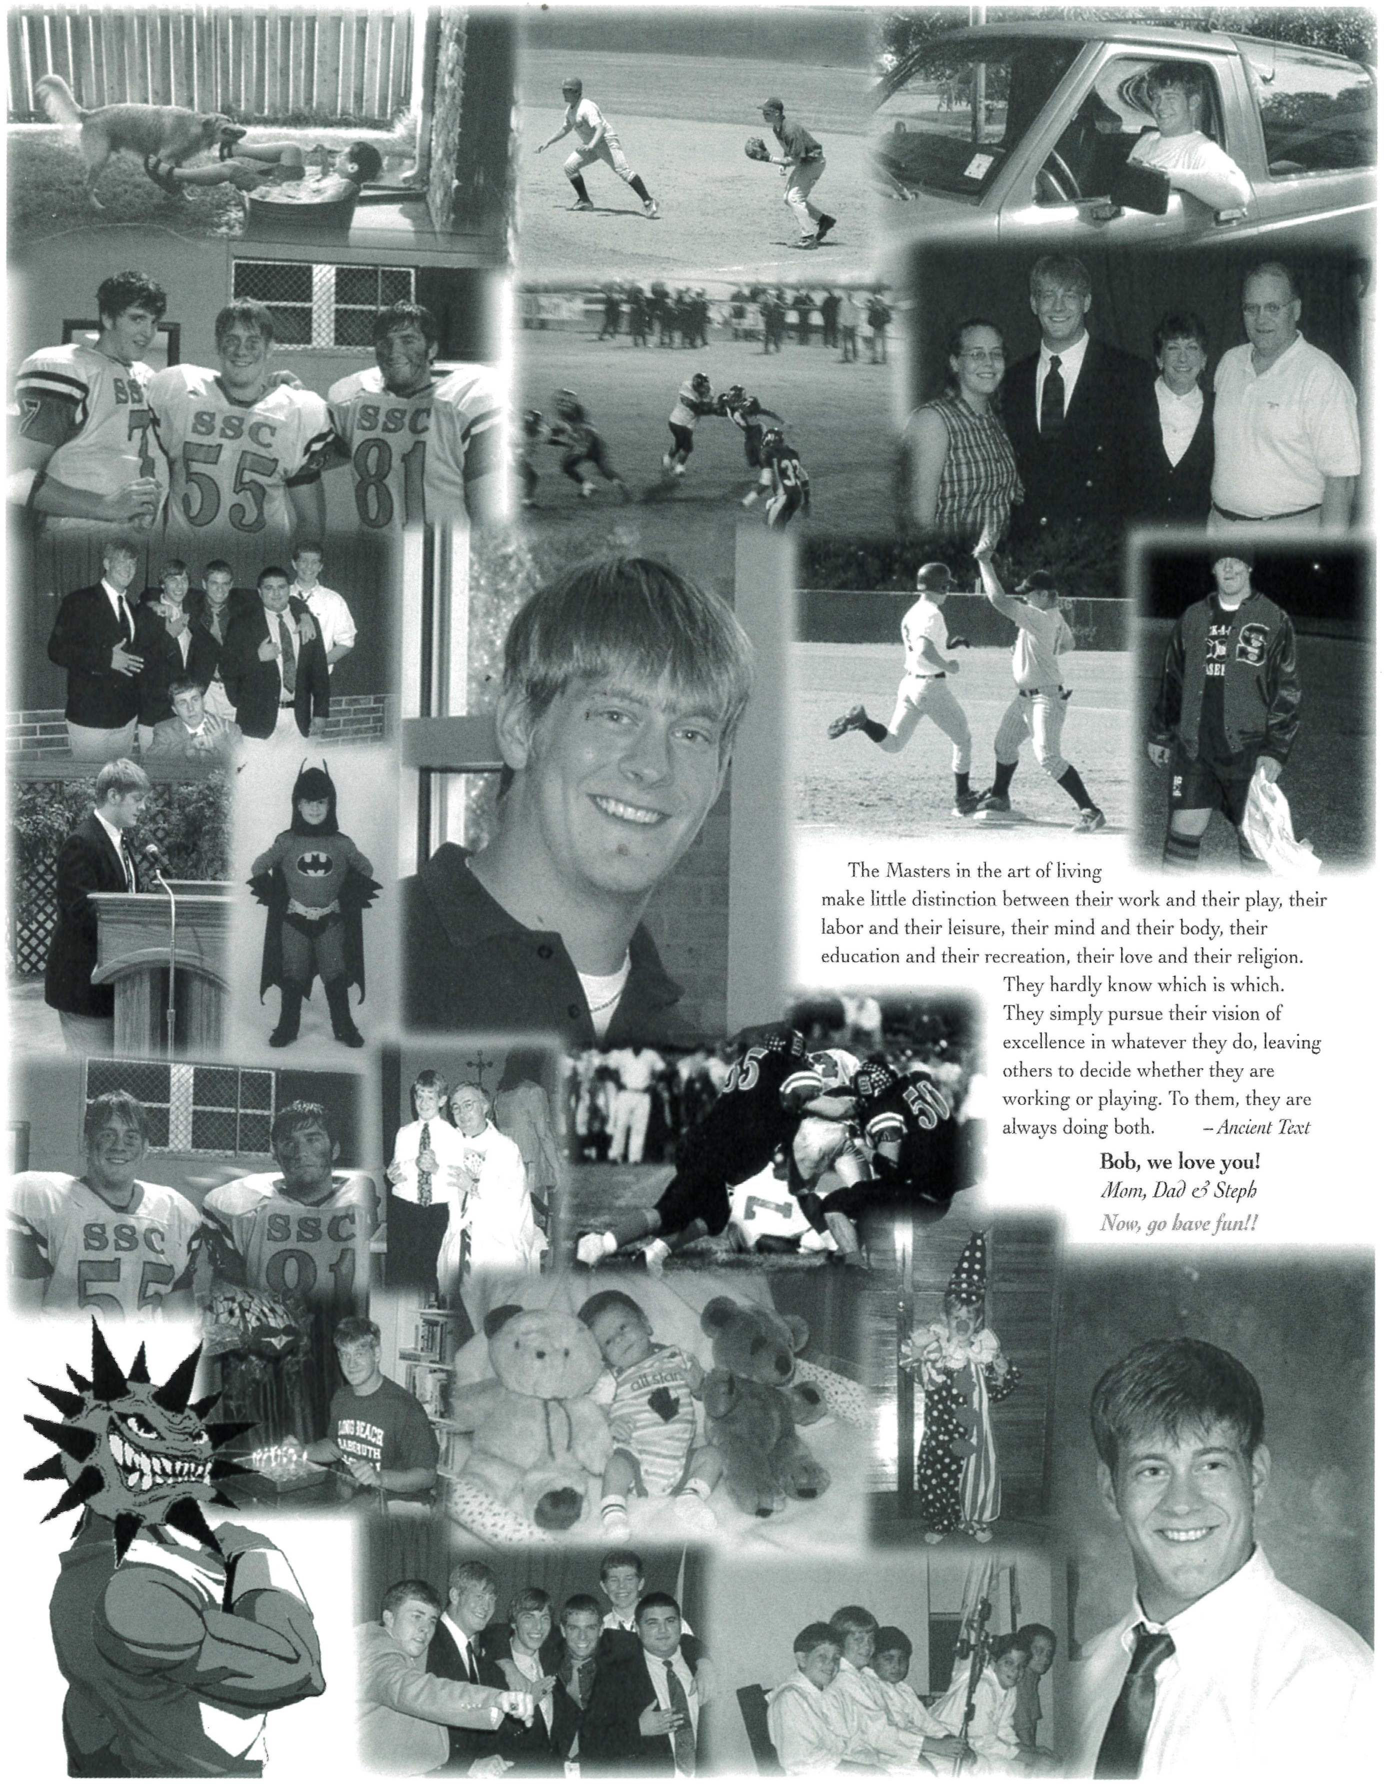
Class of 2004



The Masters in the art of living
make little distinction between their work and their play, their labor and their leisure, their mind and their body, their education and their recreation, their love and their religion.
They hardly know which is which.
They simply pursue their vision of excellence in whatever they do, leaving others to decide whether they are working or playing. To them, they are always doing both. –Ancient Text

Having a Son Like You	PRICELESS

As you end your school days, many thoughts are running through our minds, both happy and a little sad. We have watched you grow from a baby to a wonderful young man, in such a short time. You will now continue your journey without us by your side but you will always be in our hearts and on our minds. You have always been a pleasure to have as a son, even through the teenage years. I hope you are blessed with the same type of child that you have been. Stay strong and remember always that our love for you will never die.

CONGRATULATIONS JEREMY BURKE!!!!

Josh,

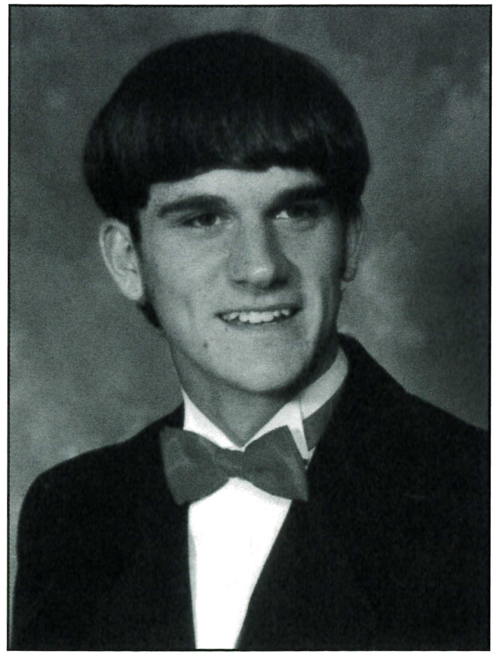
You have made us proud to call you son! We love you with all our hearts! We know you will do well at Ole Miss. Keep up the good work!

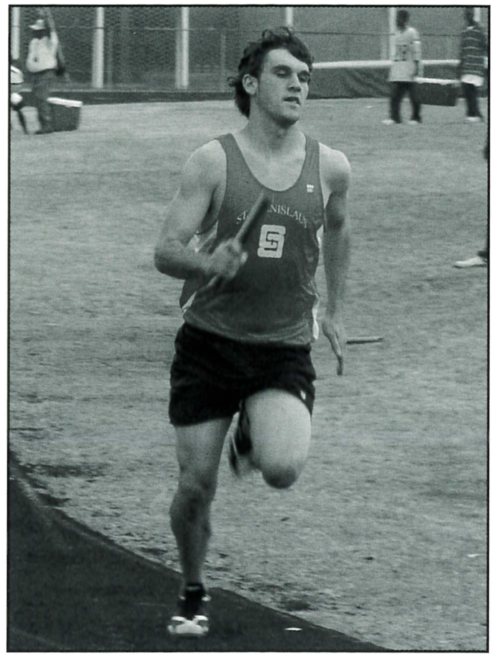
Love, Mom and Dad

I took off for a weekend last month
Just to try to recall the whole year.
All of the faces and all of the places
Wondering where they all disappeared.

Oh, yesterday's over my shoulder
So I can't look back for too long
There's just too much to see waiting in front of me
And I know that I just can't go wrong.

Changes in Latitudes, Changes in Attitudes
Jimmy Buffett, 1977





Reading departure signs in some big airport
Reminds me of the places I've been.
Visions of good times that brought so much pleasure
Makes me want to go back again.

You set goals and achieved them.
Keep following your dreams!
